

Every bequest, whatever the amount, will help secure the future of the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra and the continued performance of live orchestral music in South Australia.

A gift in your Will is a powerful and enduring expression of your love of music. It helps the ASO to grow, evolve and inspire future generations, allowing your passion for orchestral music to live on for many years to come.

Wording Your Bequest

We encourage you to discuss your intentions with your family and legal advisor. The following wording, in consultation with your lawyer, may be helpful:

I give to the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra Pty Ltd ABN 49 079 016 738 free of all duties and taxes including, if any, Capital Gains Tax:

- The whole of my residuary estate; or
- _____ % of the residue of my estate; or
- The sum of $_____; or
- _____ (specified asset/s)

and I declare that the receipt of a director or other authorised officer shall be sufficient discharge to my executor.

If you would like your gift to support a particular area of the Orchestra's work, please contact us to discuss your wishes to ensure that your particular area of interest can be supported. If your gift is too specific, when the time comes it may be impossible or impractical to fulfil its stated purpose.

The Grainger Circle

We are honoured to recognise those who have included the ASO in their Will through membership of the Grainger Circle. Grainger Circle members enjoy special opportunities to engage more deeply with the Orchestra through invitations to exclusive events.

To join, you simply need to let us know that you have included the ASO in your Will. Your membership can remain anonymous if you wish.
